KEY INGREDIENTS & BENEFITS:

Pumpkin Seed Oil (Cucurbita pepo L): Pumpkin seed oil is known for its rich content of essential fatty acids, including omega-6 and omega-9, which are vital for maintaining healthy skin, hair, and nails. It is also rich in antioxidants, which support the body's natural defence systems. Pumpkin seed oil has long been used to support prostate health and urinary function, making it an excellent choice for men looking to maintain overall well-being. Additionally, it is prized for its ability to support heart health and reduce inflammation.
