The Environment

- This salt is raked by hand from coastal sea pans.
- Harvesting does not involve the use of any vehicles for extraction and therefore minimises the cost to the environment.
- Harvested by hand from the Atlantic shores of Portugal.
- Uses the same technique that the Romans used there centuries before.

Dried only by the sun and wind, this sea salt retains some natural humidity.

The Geo Range also Includes Handcrafted Sea Salt Crystals 250g

Contains Natural Minerals
