

BEECHWOOD INTERDENTAL BRUSH

The Beechwood Interdental Brush is specially designed to effectively clean the interspaces between the teeth. The brush is made from sustainably sourced Swiss beech. The bristles are made from BPA-free nylon and metal wire.

0 - Small - recommended for small sized gaps between teeth
 2 - Medium - recommended for regular sized gaps between teeth
 3 - Large - Recommended for large sized gaps between teeth

Materials/ Packaging

Handle: Beechwood, Bristles - nylon/meta

Carton^*. ^Widely Recyclable, *Compostable

Supply

Inner - 6 brushes per box/unit - Outer - 20 units/Outer box

Shelf life

Replace brush after 7 days, or once brush is worn

Storage

Store in a cool, dry place, out of direct sunlight

Key benefits

- Bristles free from pthalates
- Bristles are BPA-free

Directions

- Insert Interdental Brush between the teeth and gently move the brush backwards and forwards, and up and down.
- Brush twice a day.
- Rinse mouth when done brushing.
- Rinse brush well after use.

Zero-waste – reuse or recycle

Components can be rinsed and reused or recycled responsibly

- Carton Box: Suitable for composting or recycling
- Beechwood handle can be recycled or composted
- Brush to be removed with tweezers and placed in general waste

Made in

- Switzerland

