Littleover Apiaries™

All of our honey is cold extracted, cold filtered and is unblended to protect the natural proteins and enzymes in this premium honey. This is the first time we have produced a honey from South America and we believe we have at last achieved a honey good enough to fit in our range. It is medium it is dark honey with an individual tropical flavour unique we believe to Mexico. It has a good strength making it great for use as a cooking ingredient or as a sweetener and is superb for spreading on toast or a hot buttered crumpet.

Littleover Apiaries are committed to sustainable farming and the care of our environment whilst producing our honeys
