Each vegan capsule delivers 500 mg of pure organic rosemary powder, providing a consistent plant-based dose designed for modern, mindful routines. The formula stays refreshingly minimal – just organic rosemary, a vegan hypromellose capsule shell and organic hemp flour. The herb’s natural aroma, colour and character are preserved through gentle processing, creating a product that feels honest, functional and true to the plant. Packaged in a resealable, recyclable pouch, these 90 capsules fit easily into daily habits, supporting a light, feel-good routine without adding complexity.
