Further Information

We all have a responsibility to clean up after our dog. When choosing which poop bag to use, it comes down to how you dispose of your dog's waste. Available in scented or unscented, our recycled bags are a great option for those who dispose of their dog's poop in park bins or general waste. No bags break down in landfill so if that's where the bag is heading, it's best to choose recycled as it's less resource intensive to use what's already here, giving waste another life.
