

Organic Spirulina Powder

Spirulina is a natural, spiral shaped, blue-green algae that harnesses energy from sunlight to fuel its growth. It is surprisingly high in protein and a rich source of micronutrients, making it a great natural boost for your body.

Our spirulina grows and multiplies naturally in pools of freshwater, before being dried into a pure, naturally nutritious powder. We rigorously test for heavy metals and ensure each batch is of the highest quality.

HELP US SAVE THE RAINFOREST

Rainforest Foods works with Rainforest Concern (charity no.1028947) to conserve threatened forests; protecting endangered habitats, the wildlife and indigenous peoples.

For every pack sold, Rainforest Foods will fund the protection of one square metre of rainforest. For further information visit: www.rainforestconcern.org

OUR SHARED EARTH INITIATIVE:

We search the world for the most nutritious foods, source from producers who farm responsibly and donate at least 10% of our profits to support social and environmental projects around the world.
