FORMULA OVERVIEW

Derived from moringa leaves, this supplement delivers chromium in its natural, plant based form. Each two capsule serving contains 1000 µg of chromium, a trace mineral that contributes to normal macronutrient metabolism and maintenance of blood glucose levels. The mineral is combined with organic brown rice flour and encapsulated in a vegan hypromellose shell, resulting in a simple formulation free from synthetic additives. With 30 servings per resealable pouch, the capsules are easy to incorporate into a month long routine and store neatly. The taste free experience and precise dosing make integration into mindful habits effortless. Made in the EU with non GMO ingredients and produced under GMP standards, this product offers a clear, responsible way to add chromium to a balanced diet while upholding Alpha01's transparent, clean-label values.
