FORMULA OVERVIEW

Experience the concentrated essence of European black elderberry in a refined, plant based format. Each capsule contains a 15:1 extract of Sambucus nigra, equivalent to 7500mg of fruit, delivering the dark berry's rich flavour and colour without added sugars or fillers. The extract is blended with organic hemp flour and enclosed in a vegan hypromellose shell, maintaining a simple, natural profile that respects the fruit's botanical character. One capsule provides a full serving, and the resealable pouch holds 90 servings, preserving freshness and offering neat storage. Adding elderberry to your routine becomes effortless – there's no need for syrups or teas when a small capsule can deliver a measured dose. Made in the EU with non-GMO ingredients and produced under GMP standards, this supplement offers a clean, reliable way to include highly concentrated elderberry in a modern lifestyle.
