

WILDSONG ORGANIC PINOT GRIS, HAWKE'S BAY

Like an unfolding song, wildflowers reveal there's something natural happening in our organic vineyards in Hawke's Bay, New Zealand. These vineyards have a harmony, energy and uniqueness about them we believe you can taste in our wines.

Pear, lychee and quince, muddled with loquat, almond and nectarine. An attractive textured palate with a balanced, dry finish that suits drinking chilled on its own or served alongside almost anything...we'd probably draw the line at beef or venison.
